

Winchester through 275 years

Godfrey Miller Lecture Series 2019

7 p.m. Woltz Pavilion, 28 S. Loudoun St., Winchester

July 16 --- 1700s in Winchester – Tom Maccubbin on early business life in Winchester through ledgers; Gene Fisher on history of the Godfrey Miller Home

July 18 ---1800s in Winchester – Rebecca Ebert on life before the War Between the States; Keven Walker on during and after the war in Winchester

July 23 ---- 1900s in Winchester – Trish Ridgeway on benefactors to the area; Judy Humbert on integration in the second half of the century

July 25 ---- 2000s in Winchester – Kris Tierney, Frederick County administrator, and Eden Freeman, Winchester city manager, on the present state of the area and future goals

Cost is $10 (cash or check) for each lecture, collected at the door. Proceeds benefit programs at the Godfrey Miller Historic Home and Fellowship Center, 28 S. Loudoun St., Winchester. Door prizes will be given away each evening.

For more information, visit <https://www.winchesterva.gov/275th-anniversary>